Folk Concert Wednesday 4th May at 7.30pm in the church (see separate poster)
Folk duo, Richard Burgess and Emmanuel Pariselle will be performing in aid of Duns Tew Church on Wednesday 4th May. They perform songs in English, French, Norwegian and even, on a good day, Italian. They are renowned for their humorous stage performances, where linguistic and cultural misunderstandings create a fun light-hearted atmosphere.

Burgess and Pariselle are two-fifths of the illustrious Five Men in a Boat, an international folk quintet recently featured in NRK2s Folklab series. Richard Burgess (Jon Burgess's brother) is originally from Kent, but made his home in Norway 40 years ago after reading too many sagas. Check out the following YouTube recording for a taste of the Burgess-Pariselle style.

Charity of the Quarter

For February/March/April, the PCC will be collecting donations via the charity plate near the door of the church, to help the work of Medical/Orphan Project (MOP) in Zimbabwe. This is a charity that Jo Barton is very involved in.

The Medical/Orphan Project supports a) orphaned children through school in Eastern Zimbabwe, and b) patients suffering with HIV/AIDS, being treated in clinics in Zimbabwe, Botswana, and the Transvaal area of South Africa. Education is the only chance for these children to make something of their already-devastated lives, and helping even a few gives hope for the future. For those in medical need, the provision of care is crucial, and also needs funding.

The Medical/Orphan Project (MOP) of TZABA is supporting 50 youngsters between 5 and 18 years old. TZABA aims to meet their educational fees from Primary to University level. Current annual school fees total US$60 per year per primary pupil, and US$1350 senior.

For further information about TZABA and MOP, please visit the website (www.tzaba.org) or visit Jo's JustGiving page: www.justgiving.com/Jo-Barton2.

Polly

Thank you to everyone who continues to donate food and money to help Polly. She is always very grateful. Reminder: When leaving donated food in the basket in church, please make sure all food is still within its use-by date. POLLY WILL NOT TAKE OUT-OF-DATE FOOD/DRINKS. I just have to throw it away.

Polly always needs:

Chocolate, chocolate bars, biscuits, teabags, instant coffee, instant chocolate drink.

Thank you!
