Lent Lunches

A communal lunch hosted by a parish in the benefice each week followed by a short talk. The first will be held at the Alice Marshall Hall, Middle Barton, on Friday, 3 March with a talk on St David, the Patron Saint of Wales and the last being held in Duns Tew Hall on Thursday 30 March, with a talk on John Donne, (1571-1631) poet, soldier, Dean of St Paul's Cathedral, about whom, Van Morrison, sang "Rave On, John Donne" in his 1983 album "Inarticulate Speech of the Heart". All between 12.15pm-1.45pm. Please contact Joan on 01869 349861 for further details. All welcome.

Spring Clean

We will be having a spring clean in the church on Wednesday, 8th March, 10am-12 and 2pm-4pm. Any help from the village would be appreciated. Refreshments provided. Just turn up!

Family@Church

We would really value your support for the younger generation at our family@church services on the fourth Sunday of each month. These are child-friendly services and include a craft activity for the children, but all ages are welcome, especially the young at heart! Breakfast and activities start at 9.00am.

Coffee Morning in the Village Hall

To raise funds for church improvements on Saturday, 1 April. Usual time of 10.30am to 12.30pm.
